

DJ Bobo, Too Many Nights

D.J.BOBO:

This is a party song about love and lies
S letter and to many nights
Its new its hot don't turn around
Shake your body when you hear the sound
That's great so what you waiting for Thousands of people that want some more
Listen to the word se it in your eyes
I need one of your beautiful eyes

Refrain:

So give me one of to many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of to many nights when i will write you a letter
So give me one of to many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of to many nights when i will write you a letter

D.J.BOBO:

Its about time for a combination
Of rhythm and rimes and the party nation
You are a class before you know
The music makes you want to flow
You flow with the beat and you still want more
Makes you crazy want to get on the floor
Open your eyes to the left to the right
Give me one of to many nights

Refrain:

So give me one of to many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of to many nights when i will write you a letter
So give me one of to many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of to many nights when i will write you a letter
