

Dj Shah feat. Adrina Thorpe, Back To You

Wind swept,
Faces on sunset avenue,
All I wanted was to get to you,
Screaming,
Heart felt,
My apologies,
Don't make a difference,
'cause you just can't believe,
Nothing,
Miles & miles keeping us apart,
Broken layers,
of a shattered star,
If I could rewind times you were so blind,
And I'd come running back to you (to you, to you...)
Where you are,
Is where I wanna be,
Racing back to where my heart was free,
If I, could have, time to renew
Then I'd come running back to you,
Pieces, shadows, faces of the dark,
Turn out all the lights above the sound
Over a scent waking up the room
Then I'd come running back to you
Where you are,
Is where I wanna be,
Racing back, to where my heart was free,
If I could have time to renew,
Then I'd come running back to you (to you, to you...)
Our love,
Is where we are to be,
Sunsets bring dawn eventually,
Give me the chance to start a new,
And I'd come running back to you (to you, to you...)
Where you are,
Is where I wanna be,
Racing back, to where my heart was free,
If I could have time to renew,
Then I'd come running back to you
