

Doane Melanie, Goliath

I've been sleeping
under the beanstalk
and I've been dreaming of something big
I don't know how
but I could swear
I'm on my way somewhere Awake the giant
awake, awake
Hey Goliath
oh you're no bigger You're no bigger than me
I know I've got something inside of me
Just like I know you've got something inside of you
It might be hard but if we dare
we're on our way somewhere Awake the giant
awake, awake
Hey Goliath
oh you're no bigger
You're no bigger than me
Say the words you have swallowed See the visions
in you're mind's eye
Do what you feel in your heart
Awake the giant in you I've been waiting for a signal for something to tell me everything's all right But now I see
it's up to me
No one else can fight this fight
