Dog Eat Dog, Think

I don't even hear what you say It's all about what you do You think you're the mack I'll tell you a fact No-one gives a fuck about you

What it is What is was And what you always will be Think You think you're my friend You ain't my friend

I hear you talking about respect and clout You never get a bit A front or a back We're gonna smack Time to flip the script on you kid
