Yesterday everything was fine I read another dead chapter in the book of life And now my soul's saved Hallelujah The dance

because he's already dead And now my soul's saved Hallelujah Because I lied to you In a world that's so untrue Yesterday I turned my blood into wine And my crown of thorns has never felt so right And now my soul's saved Hallelujah Another chance to forget myself To harbor the damned to the promised land And now my soul's save Hallelujah Because I lied to you In a world that's so untrue Yesterday everything was fine I read another dead chapter in the book of life And now my soul's saved Yesterday I turned my blood into wine And my crown of thorns has never felt so right

Hallelujah
Yesterday I turned my blood in
And my crown of thorns has no
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue (x2)
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue (x2)
