

Dog Fashion Disco, Siamese Fever

Once upon a time
an exordium
asceticism formed to haunt human beings a flux from the bowels flushes pangs away
to escape from thought i'll swallow my tongue hebephrenia hypochondria personalities multiplied by space paranoia and schizophrenia stemming from the constriction in my throat satan loves you so does jesus christ count your blessings one head at a time
they wont respect you in the morning I feel the same
once upon a time
in a siamese twin anger formed a threat to his duplicate rising mercury mocking mimicry unanimity can and will not be scissor homicide would be suicide
fever in disguise temperatures will rise
beginning with an incision in the skin separation
