

Dogfight, Another Day

Why do I blame myself,
For pushing so far away?
I try to tell myself,
It's all your fault
You've caused this pain.

{Chorus}
And I need to find a way,
To show you this is all for you.
But I sleep another day,
Just wishing that you knew.

Now that you hate yourself
For things I do, for things I say.
You don't know yourself,
see through it all everyday.

{Chorus}

I see you watching me,
Wondering if it's all for you.
Now I have you here,
Wondering if it's true.

{Chorus x2}

That you knew.
That you knew.
