

Dogfight, Rise

Show me anyone alive
Who has a choice today
Tell me why we must remain Always inside our minds
You and I will never be the same living life this way
you and I will never be the same
you and I will never be the same
you and I we must stand and
RISE and take control RISE I need something to believe in RISE You'll never know RISE Give me something to believe in confusion, deception, manipulation can you relate to all this hate I keep inside
I can't relate to all this pain
I feel I feel I feel
You and I will never be the same
Living Life this way
you and I will never be the same
You and I will never be the same
You and I we must stand and
RISE and take control
RISE I need something to believe in RISE You'll never know
