

Dogs Damour, How Do You Fall In Love Again

HOW DO YOU FALL IN LOVE AGAIN?
(Tyla)

Sitting with my head in my hands
Letting the tears trickle through like sand
The times you've taken
And the things we'd given
And the films we'd watch
And the things we'd do
And the things I'd say to you

How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over
How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over

When I'm out with the boys
You're gonna say I'm alright
I got someone to take home tonight
It's not what I want

It's not what I need
You know me better than that

How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over
How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over

Oh! When things get bad
And, baby, out of hand
I'll come running to you, oh, wow!
And you'll tell me not to worry it'll be alright
'Cause one day somebody will hold you tight
Much tighter than me, oh!

How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over
How do you fall in love again
How do you start it all over
