

Dogs Damour, I Think Its Love Again

I THINK IT'S LOVE AGAIN
(Tyla)

As the stories I've told unfold
To reveal a highway man
And my scars and bruises show
That I am just what I am
There ain't no need to be ashamed

I think it's love again
I think it's love again
I think it's love again
I think it's love again

Oh, but you, you can show me what it is
I don't need to explain
I can see it in your eyes
I can feel it in your pain, oh

I think it's love again
I think it's love again

I think it's love again
I think it's love again

Every man is an island
Every woman is a sea
All the things I ever saw
All the things that I wanted to be
It means so much to me

To be in love again
To be in love again
I think it's love again
I think it's love again

You say I don't know where to stop
You slam on your brakes and I fall right off
You pick me up and you dust me down
You give me a kiss and I give me a crown
That is why I always know

That Im in love again
