

Dogstar, Blown Away

I miss the way you smell
I miss the time we had
I pushed it to the end
I threw myself down again

I miss the light I miss the day
I'm on the ground, blown away
In a world that's gone
I need another day
I'm on the ground, blown away

I miss the way you stayed
I will return there someday
I pushed it to the end
I threw myself down again

I miss the light I miss the day
I'm on the ground, blown away
In a world that's gone
I need another day
I'm on the ground, blown away

I miss the light I miss the day
I'm on the ground, blown away
In a world that's gone
I need another day
I'm on the ground, blown away

I miss the light I miss the day
I'm on the ground, blown away
In a world that's gone
I need another day
I'm on the ground, blown away
I'm blown away
