

Dogstar, Halo

Here's the one you
cannot run from
it's everywhere you go
so go numb
lift your head to see
it's all gone
now lie there wondering what have you done

Hello- to my hollow one
with a halo
offer up a scene that can't be seen
fool me in all my love

Here's the one I
cannot run from
it smothers me and
makes me go numb
now you're finding that you need some
just pull the sheet
above your head now

Hello- to my hollow one
with a halo
offer up a scene that
can't be seen- fool me

I see the angel in thee
sent from beyond
to entertain me

Fool me- I have believed in all of the things you do-they're all for you
