

Dogwood, Come Back Down

Come back down
Be around and I'll be home again
Cross my heart
Close my eyes, as I fall into you

And be all that I need from you

I never knew you'd take
The opportunity to know someone like me
When all of me rests in you, my father
You're my shield

Hear me, all that I am is you
{Is you!}

So come back down
Be around and I'll be yours once more
Around and we'll be closer still
