Dogwood, Preshool Days

All the things I've seen couldn't prepare mefor what I was about to experience As a little boy, growing up in a world,made for all the big kids and the big toys... Sometimes, I'd sit around and wait, play with my toy cars,until the wheels would turn no more, then I'd think to myself... is my dads car coming homeor will this be another night,my mom, my brow

Chorus:

I learned my alphabet to spell dad,how quickly dad turned to sad, in my preschool days, and the rest of my life.My mother did the best that she could, my brother stayed as strong as he stood, a father figure to me, my preschool days.

I remember all the times mom cried,my brother stayed strong by her side, and I would stand and wonder why there was threewhen there should be four. Maybe my dad got lo and then again it wouldn't make sense, I feel alone.

(CHORUS)

Break:

So where has he been? He's running out of time. I haven't heard from him. I hope he's doing fine.M
