

Dogwood, The Pain Is Gone

Take my rage
Hide it in your fists
It's all for you
It's all I can do

And believe me when I say
That I'll pay you back some day
When you're standing all alone
With nothing of your own

Bury my burdens
Have fun controlling me
Cast all my cares
Upon your weary shoulders

Heed my words to you
Because what I say is true
This is something we discussed
I want the best for us

Reaching out, desperately
Broken dreams, you and me
Reaching out, tragically
Dead beliefs, you and me

Take my rage
Hide it in your fists
It's all for you
It's all I can do

And believe me when I say
That I'll pay you back some day
When you're standing all alone
With nothing of your own

Reaching out, desperately
Broken dreams, you and me
Reaching out, tragically
Dead beliefs, you and me

Now my pain is gone
The pain is gone
I'm moving on
The pain is gone

I'm moving on
