

Dogwood, Trailer Full Of Tragedy

The apartment is empty
The pictures have left their marks on the wall
Nothing has ever taken so long
Moving away
A new horizon to look at each day
And I'll try not to hold on

You practice your packing
The trailer is crammed with memories dear
Only the highway bears your pain
Count your blessings
Let the future now outweigh the past
And why would you look back?

Live life perfect
I admire the strength that you both have
I pray for you
Timing, everything
All that you have, everyone loves you
And we too

Memories trail behind
Start out new
And find the people
Who waited for you

Timing, everything
All that you have, everyone loves you
And we too
Live life perfect
I admire the strength that you both have
I pray for you

Trailer
Full of victories
And tragedies
New memories

Live life perfect
I admire the strength that you both have
I pray for you
Timing, everything
All that you have, everyone loves you
And we too
And we too
And we too
