

Dokken, Fugitive

I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for some time
Can't you just leave me alone?
Let me die upon this throne

Time keeps slipping by
Can't keep track of time
Everyone is gone

I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for too long
I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for too long

I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for some time
Tried to find some peace of mind
Your objections are not kind

I know it's hard to show it
Set me free, why don't ya?
Guide me to a bitter phrase

I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for too long
I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for some time

I'm a fugitive from life
I've been running for too long
Can't you just leave me alone?
Let me die upon this throne
