Dolly Parton, Christmas Without You

" Christmas Without You" by Dolly Parton and Roger Whittaker

(Both) Christmas without you White Christmas and I'm blue Like fireworks with no fuse Christmas without you

Roger: The fireplace keeps burning And my thoughts keep turning The pages of memories Of time spent with you

Dolly: Old Christmas songs we knew And used to make love to Make it hard to get used to Christmas without you

Christmas without you White Christmas and I'm blue I love you I miss you So sad but so true

Christmas without you Like a mystery with no clue Like fireworks with no fuse Christmas without you

Roger: The sweetest gift I know Would be if the new snow Could fall on your footsteps On this Christmas Eve.

Dolly: The most joyous Christmas If luck could be with us Would be if Saint Nicholas Brought you home to me

Christmas without you White Christmas and I'm blue I love you, I miss you, I need you So sad but so true

Christmas without you Like a mystery with no clues Like fireworks with no fuse Christmas without you

Christmas without you White Christmas and I'm blue I love you I miss you so sad but so true

Christmas without you I just can't get used to I just have no use For Christmas without you

Refrain: (R.W)You know that I want you (D.P.)You know that I need you (R.W)You know that I need you (D.P.)You know that I want you

(Both) You know that I love you I need you I want you Oh, yes I do!

(Repeat refrain once, fading out.)
