Dolly Parton, My Dear Companion

Oh have you seen my dear companion For he was all this world to me I hear he's gone to come far country And that he cares no more for me I wish I were a swallow flying I'd fly to a high and lonesome place I'd join the wild birds in their crying Thinking of you and your sweet face

Oh have you seen my dear companion For he was all this world to me But now the stars have turned against me And he cares no more for me

Oh when the dark is on the mountain And all the world has gone to sleep I will go down to the cold waters And there I'll lay me down and weep

Oh have you seen my dear companion For he was all this world to me
