

Dommin, Tonight

Are you ready to start the night
Do you feel alright, yeah do you feel alright
Hollow hunger, will you be bite
Have you the appetite, have you the appetite
I can mend your misery
If you believe in me
Do you believe in me
It's hard to swallow hard to perceive
But then it's plain to me
And it's plain to see that

Tonight, I'm coming home with you
(to fill the hole in you)
Tonight, it's only me and you
(What have you got to lose)

To a night you won't forget
But that you might regret
Yeah you might regret
Every action has a consequence
But do you know it yet, Do you know it yet

Nothing any vice can tame
It only feeds the flame
Will you feed the flame
Does it matter if you know my name
Because we're all the same
Maybe we're all the same
Before you realize you are alone
I will be gone
Until we meet again...
