

Don Dokken, 1000 Miles Away

Just like sand running through my hands
We tried to hold love but it just slipped away
Was I so wrong to keep you holding on
Hoping someday that we would find a way...to make love stay

CHORUS:

There's nothing left to say
As I send these words a thousand miles away
Still holding on to the memories
Lost in your heart, blinded by love, you said
If we had known, we could have found a way
Is it too late to bring you back to me, to me again

CHORUS

SOLO

BRIDGE

Lost in our hearts
We'll be forever yearning
Tears in our eyes
Start to fall, just like rain
Only for you
