

Don Gibson, It Has To Be

Although you mean and throw to me just like a fool won't set you free
I love you so oh don't you know it has to be mhm
Although at times your love's not true though you've had friends I know not who Can't let you go I love you so it has to be Well you can't be happy no use to try I wouldn't be satisfied
If you were gone and I was not by your side
Although the tears off dim my eyes I'm not too fit to sit and cry
It's half a true it's only you it has to be Well you can't be happy...
