LOSING YOUR LOVE

(Don Gibson)

Losing your love that was mine brings hurt and lonely time
Losing your love I fall through brings tears and heartaches too
I should've known and never let you hurt me ever
But I was blind love stood in the way
Yes I lost in this game thought I'd do the same thing
If you fell in love with me again
Losing your love that was mine brings tears and lonely time
I should've known and never let you hurt me ever...
