

Don't Die Cindy, Patience

be patient with me,
is all that I could tell her,
be patient with me,
cause I don't believe in love, and if I tell you my secret,
for better or worse a change,
if I tell you my secret,
for better or worse a change...

don't look into my eyes, you'll see something you don't like,
and you'll just run away, I don't want to give you advice, i'll make you cry with every word I say...

she won't ever see it so i'll dissapear in change,
she won't ever see it so i'll dissapear in change...

you can tell her go find a love somewhere else, i'm not going...
