

Don't Look Down, Brainwashed

I'm stuck in a place I don't belong
With no luck of ever movin on
I'm brainwashed into thinkin I knew the truth
I'm wishin there were things I never knew

[Chorus]
How can I stop these feelings
From turning around
And stabing me in the back
Why Do I lie to myself
I keep telling myself
She has feelings that she lacks

I'm tryin to make sense of this
But It's so hard when there's so much I missed
Life sux when ya think you'll be ok
Until you fall apart the very next day

[Chorus]
She lacks [x4]

I'm brainwashed by another
I'm brainwashed like no other

[Chorus]
Feelings that she lacks
