

Don't Look Down, Follow

Here I'm dead more than awake, not living,
And here I see more in my dreams, while sleeping,
Wait a minute I'm not quite through yet,
Just a second, I could be your best bet.

Love me, leave me,
Just don't question my direction,
Trust me, need me,
Just don't question my direction,
Just know it's you I follow.

Now I see through all the stars in your eyes,
How we made it through with just the hearts we have inside.

Wait a minute I'm not quite through yet,
Just a second, I could be your best bet.
