Don't Look Down, Right Where It Hurts

i'm reaching out you pull away keep it inside keep drifting farther down I just thought you should know it's all inside your head the things you hide I won't wait time won't wait for this to happen shake these shadows from my eyes let's see how far we can fade out all these words you say are deceiving M I S L E A D I N G
i'm reaching out you turn away last time i'll try complicated frustrated by this endless night keep falling farther d o w n are you waiting on the world to show you all the things you need inside?
