

Don't Look Down, The Fear In Love

I keep trying to figure this out fragile moments keep this (your) head full of doubt the SILENCE BURNS inside I wanna tell you everything you need to find a way to let me in I wanna take what's in your head and make it right again (cheesy but true) redefining my life away from you a deserted island in the empty atlantic blue (i am) a resolution is distant and out of reach what the use in COLOR IF I CAN'T SEE please just listen, IM SORRY FOR THE THINGS I NEVER SAID (wait) i'm not finished, all the times I made you go away.... this fear in love has turned me the wrong way
