

Don Williams, Falling Again

I should take my time, I know, take it easy, take it slow
Every heartache needs to mend, before you love again
So I hold on for awhile and try to keep this old heart free
And then I look across a room and someone smiles at me

CHORUS:

Oh and heaven help me here I go again
Before I've even had the time for this old heart to mend
Oh I just get over one heartache and then
Here I go, like a fool, falling again
People tell me take your time, wait awhile and clear your mind
Give yourself some time to heal, If you fall be sure it's real
But it seems that every time, I'm almost on my feet
Someone makes me say hello, someone on the street
