

Don Williams, In Love's Endless

Love's Endless War

Don Williams

LOVE'S ENDLESS WAR

Hearts have been broken

in the game of true love

I'm afraid to surrender

I'm not strong enough

Give it all away

open up every door

My heart is a castle in love's endless war

Dreams can betray you

When you're far out that sea

Many proud hearts have foundered

on love's mutiny

Give it all away

Be a young fool once more

My heart is an island adrift from your shore

in love's endless war
