

Don Williams, In The Morning

IN THE MORNIN'
WRITER DON WILLIAMS

When the sun comes up and it's time to get up in the mornin'
Will you think of me and how it oughta be in the mornin'
Well I don't know why you could say goodbye
And I can't see how you could be anywhere but here with me in the mornin'
Where was I when you made your move to go away
Where was I I didn't hear the things I've always heard or always said
Well it's no lie I never thought about it not a day
And I'll tell you why I really thought we always tried to say what should be said
When the sun comes up...
