Donell Jones, Where You Are

" Where You Are (Is Where I Wanna Be) Part 2"

I'm saying I'm sorry for leaving you But I wanted to start my life brand new I was going through changes and could not see That with you is where I wanna be

Nothing compares to you And I hurt from the pain that I put you through Baby, I need you desperately Cuz I gotta be

Where you are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
Every second of a day I wanna be
Where u are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
Dont you ever take your love away I wanna be
Where u are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
I cant live without you girl I wanna be
Where u are

Where you are, uh huh, oh

Being apart got the best of me And I know that in life there's no guarantees Please say that you still got love for me Cuz I'm missing home

I'm never gonna leave And I say it because you're all I need For better or worse, to the end of time I gotta be

Where you are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
Every second of a day I wanna be
Where u are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
Dont you ever take your love away but I got to be
Where u are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
I cant live without you girl I wanna be
Where u are

Where you are, and where you are Where you are, oh

I am sorry for all the things I put ya through Baby, you are my world I can't live my life without you

Can I come back home where I belong Cuz I'm so alone Baby girl, I'm on my knees, beggin' please Cuz with you is where I wanna be

Where you are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
Ever second every minute said I gotta be
Where you are
Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far
And dont you take your love away

Where you are Anywhere you are, it don't matter how far Said I cant live life without you Where you are

I just wanna be where you are baby
