

Donna Summer, LOVE'S UNKIND (In Album Live

Spoken:

Remember light thoughts in the 50's and 60's and pony tails and highschool sweaters well those were the good days Well I seem him every morning in the schoolyard when the schoolbell rings and when he passes in the hallway well he doesn't seem to notice me he's got a crush on my best friend but she don't care, 'cause she loves someone else I'm standing on the outside, no the inside where I wanna be Love's unkind, love's unkind
love's unkind, love's unkind
cause he's not mine
Just the other day I was praying that he'd give a change hoping he would choose me for his partner for the high school dance I was standing outside the class but it wasn't me, but my best friend, he asked I went running back inside teary-eyed and left the two of them behind Love's unkind, love's unkind
love's unkind, love's unkind
cause he's not mine

Spoken:

Oh how I love him, but I can't even let him know 'cause he loves my best friend but she don't care, she loves someone else...
