Donna Summer, My Man Medley: The Man I Love

Spoken:

I just wanna say this this is something I thing most of you ladies will identify with and maybe some of you men too

(THE MAN I LOVE)

Someday he'll come along the man I love and he'll be rich and strong the man I love and when he comes my way I'll do my best to make him stay

He'll look at me and smile
I'll understand
and maybe for awhile
he'll take my hand
and though it seems absurd
I know we both won't say a word

Spoken:

You know I'm the kind of lady that always seems to find the wrong man at the wrong place at the wrong time it's not that I go out looking for him but somehow he always seems to find me you see what I'm looking for is the kind of man that comes home with candy and flowers sayin' "come on put on your dancing shoes cause we're gonna wine and dine, wine and dine" but what I always seem to find is the kind of man that comes home fussing and fighting, breaking my best dishes and beat my head outside the wall shows no love no respect and nothing at all

(I GOT IT BAD AND THAT AIN'T GOOD)

Never treats me sweet and gentle the way he should I got it bad and that ain't good! (no, it ain't good at all, you know)

Spoken:

Listen, have you been treating your lady nice lately, you have? and how about you? great, well I've been gettin' rocked completely!

My poor heart is sentimental it's not made of wood

I got it bad and that ain't good

Spoken:

So you see on Monday nights I just go out and drink and drink

But when the weekend's over on Monday rolls aroun' I end up like I start out just cryin' my heart out cryin' my heart out Lord above me (come on) make him love me then he should I got it bad baby

I got it bad baby I got it bad and that ain't good! no it ain't good at all you know

Spoken:

But listen Mister big shot I've got your number and I'll take care of you and you too and you and you and you

(SOME OF THESE DAYS)
