

Donny Osmond, Puppy Love

There's a candle I keep in my window, and it's burning brighter tonight.
Through the storm and the winds of change,
I'll be sure that you can see the light.
I never wandered, I never gave up,
'cause a true heart never goes astray.
Whatever road that you take
will lead you back to me,
'cause our love is too strong to slip away.
Like a river flowing into the ocean,
I can feel you coming back to me.
(bring it on back)

'Cause our love is like a sacred emotion,
and it's burning bright
for the whole world to see.
It won't be long before I hear that knock on my door, that telephone call.
And if your journey takes you far away,
I'll still catch you when you fall.
Love's like a wheel, turning 'round and round,
the feeling fades but never dies.
There'll never be any question or doubt in my mind,
'cause the answer's right there, in your eyes.
Like a river flowing into the ocean,
I can feel you coming back to me.
(bring it on back)

'Cause our love is like a sacred emotion,
and it's burning bright
for the whole world to see.
Bring it on back to me.
Whatever road that you take
will lead you back to me
'cause our love is too strong to slip away.
Like a river flowing into the ocean,
(bring it on back to me)
I can feel you coming back to me.
(I feel you in my heart)
'Cause our love is like a sacred emotion
And it's burning bright
for the whole world to see.
I feel you coming back to me.
