

Donots, Lady Luck

I swear there were times
When I felt a little more at ease
Had a better sense of humour
And I had a strong belief
I guess I am a realist
But tend to be a pessimist
Ever since the very day she left me
It's easy to lose all your
Faith in humanity
Why don't you switch on the TV
In case you don't believe me?
The world is going down the drain
Somebody must be to blame
Cause everybody's slowly going crazy
And I wanna know who shot lady luck
Tell me, who shot lady luck that day
Tonight I drink to all my friends
Abandon ships, this is the end
Everybody's a potential killer
I guess I know who shot lady
I know who shot lady luck that day
