Donovan, Changes

Everyone is right
Everything is wrong
Don't let the changes get you down, man
'Cos everyone is wrong
Everything is all right now
Don't let the changes get you uptight.

Butter my toast, and I'll go
Button up a coat, and let's go
Off to the coast we must go
Don't wanna boast, but I'll grow much better there
Don't let the changes get you down man

Vietnam, Biafra
The obsurdity of greed
How much can one man possibly need?
Sickness and disease
And ignorance on every side
Don't let the changes get you tight.

Button your toast and let's go
Button a coat and I'm gonna go
Off to the coast we must go
Don't wanna boast, but I'll grow much better there
Don't let the changes get you down man.
