

Doomsday Refreshment Committee, Shallow

Your little world falls around you no pity for you
Endless circle of self destruction and I laugh at you

Breathing in all the hate that surrounds you I'm on to you
Apathy long since parted there's nothing for you

I won't cry again for you
I'm done bleeding out for you
Choke on the things that you do
Your so

SHALLOW

Building walls of desperation they close in on you
Manipulation of simple reason I see right through you

I won't cry again for you
I'm done bleeding out for you
Forever to be alone
Its no ones fault but your own
I won't cry again for you
I'm done bleeding out for you
It all comes back to you to you
