

Doomshine, Sleep With The Devil

displaced emotion on crucial days claim for devotion just for God's sake refuse and whine in doom to sate the overlord is no evil thing serve up your feeble horde, those something beings between her thighs I rule betray this worthless place escape to meet your fate sleep with me, angel

believe or decay
don't play with damnation this price must be paid darling of fortune, don't roll the dice I'm not your bridegroom, I'm just your guide lay down, bear up against pain be brave and be my slave come, bleed with lust and greed

to shine is to stand and juggling salvation will not lend a hand defense, lament, the sense, intense intense the glance, revenge, condemned the stand, the lamb who's sent this gent ?

who's sent the end ?
the end...the end...
