

Dopamine, Call To Arms

Forget what you think you know,
Cos everything is not what it seems,
tonight yeah,
Forget what you think you know,
Cos everything is not what it seems,

We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide
We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide

Forget what you think you know,
Cos everything is not what it seems,
tonight yeah,
Forget all the truth been told
Cos everything is not what it seems,

We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide
We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide

we won't falter
we won't falter

We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide
We walk out on these streets with no disguise and
we won't ever run away and hide

we won't (x3)
we won't (x3)
we won't (x3)
we won't (x3)
we won't (x3)
