

Dopamine, Experiments With Truth

10 minutes to get out before choice is no longer yours...
The closure is much darker than the black in my eyes...
I'm not waiting to find out
if you stay, then you stay alone
the choice that we have made might be the burden of our life

What are you hiding from tonight?
are you scared to face this one?
know the TRUTH is not yours
when your left alone you can't reverse it...

your shaking... are you alright are things not going to plan this time
Stop shaking... you'll be alright if you can hold it together your shaking... are you alright why can't you hold it together this time
Stop shaking... this end tonight if u can hold it together

Hold it together

What are you hiding from tonight?
are you scared to face this one?
when your left alone you can't reverse it...
