

Doro, Children Of The Dawn

We fight for righteous reasons
We are the children of the dawn

We feel the power
Yeah, we know the road we take is hard
So deep and dark, so very far
Waiting every hour
To hear a battle cry at night
We'll keep our faith, prepared to fight
Cause in our hearts we're pure and strong
And without fear we'll stand as one

We'll be holding on (We want more)
Through the rain and through the storm
We will soldier on (End all wars)
We're the children of the dawn
We fight for righteous reasons
We are the children of the dawn

Wipe away our sorrows
We're armed and filled with strong belief
We break the chains, we're riding free
Yeah, we take the hard way
We will last until the end of time
Can you see the sign, true and divine
Cause in our hearts we're pure and strong
Forever we will stand as one

We'll be holding on (We want more)
Through the rain and through the storm
We will soldier on (End all wars)
We're the children of the dawn
And without fear we're moving on
Forever we will stand as one

We fight for righteous reasons
We are the children of the dawn
