Doro, I Am What I Am

Some choose to remember Some choose to forget Some fall to pieces When they lose their heads

I choose to get lucky Don't choose to regret I'll take my chances Only I know best

When it all gets down to me When it all gets down to me

('Cause) I Am, What I Am And no one's gonna tell me where or when 'Cause I Am What I Am And no one's gonna break me down again

I hate to be lonely I can't pretend Don't need no phonies Tryin' to be my friends

Don't care 'bout danger I can take the fall Ev'ryone's a stranger Till just one stands tall

And it all comes down to me When it all comes down to me

('Cause) I Am, What I Am And nobody's gonna tell me where or when 'Cause I Am, What I Am Nothin's gonna break me down again

I can hear the devil callin', callin' I can hear him callin' me But I don't do nothin' I don't believe

When it all comes down to me When it all gets down to me

('Cause) I Am, What I Am And no one's gonna tell me where or when 'Cause I Am, What I Am And nothin's gonna break me down again No, nothin's gonna break me down - again
