

Doro Pesch, I Want You Back

I want you back again
uh I want you back I can't take it
that you're with someone else uh I want you here
I want you with me back again

Your very reason for leaving was that I let you go but you know I regret it now I wish I could make up for it somehow cos' we were meant for each other so much love and pain we shared I didn't mean to hurt you so bad

I want you back again
I want you back
I can't take it
when you're with someone else
I want you here
I want you with me back again

I never understood that we were meant to be until I saw you disappear I came to realize that you were the one for me and that without you I would rather die

The only reason I'm living is just for loving you I wish I could make it all come true cos' you are the only one for me I don't have much hope when I don't feel your love you're all that I've got

I want you back again
I want you back
I'm jealous
when you're with someone else

I want you here
I want you with me
and no one else
and no one else
and no one else
