

Dottie West, It's Teardrop Time

It's teardrop time I'm all alone again it's teardrop time my baby's gone again
My happiness has left me here behind sad eyes get sick to cry it's teardrop time
Again he's heard the call from his old flame
And the fire that beckoned took him just like an evening train
Love lives no more inside this world of mine
Hang on and help me hard it's teardrop time
Love lives no more...
Hang on and help me hard it's teardrop time
