

Dottie West, Lovin' Season

LOVIN' SEASON
WITH DON GIBSON
(Gene Thomas)

I've been a feelin' kinda funny oh and everyday is sunny
All the bees are makin' honey oh the lovin' season is on Got all the ambition got a sweet desposition
Baby I've been wishin' you will gonna catch me before the lovin' season is gone
Well I've got nothing but time to try to win your love
Oh baby you're on my mind and you're the only thing I've been thinking of Well I'm taking my stand I try as hard as I can
And prove that I'm the right man when lovin' season is near
Well baby you're so pleasin' all I need is squeezin'
Maybe that's the reason I'm a runnin' slow because the lovin' season is here
Well I've got nothing but time to try to win your love
Oh baby you're on my mind and you're the only thing I've been thinking of Well I'm gonna bet'cha oh I'm gonna get'cha
Baby I'll just let'cha lovin' season is here lovin' season is here
