

Double You, Wonderful World

Don't be afraid now

afraid now (4x)

You are the victim of the human race

I'll pray for your sorrow, man without a face beg, steal and borrow, do just what you can there's hope for tomorrow, believe in today

Look a minute at your home (3x)

tonight

It's a wonderful world to be living in (4x)

Give him a future we know what to do heaven is the answer, we're knocking at its door

Look a minute at your home (3x)

tonight

It's a wonderful world to be living in (4x)

Don't be afraid now, time will tell the truth

Look a minute at your home (3x)

tonight

It's a wonderful world to be living in (9x)
