

Dover, Cold

Don't hold on to them
Don't you fall for them
'Cause they won't be here forever
Don't do today
What you can do tomorrow

Don't ever forget
Don't you play with this
'Cause they won't be here forever
Don't do today
What you can do tomorrow

I'm not cold anymore
I have learned
You better go and take with you
All of your sorrow
Let it out
