

Dover Drive, Last Laugh (Revised)

DON'T LOOK BACK!!!

When you walked away
I never thought I'd have the very last laugh
but now i'm laughing
harder then ever
because its so convincing
like the black words on a page when you said
don't look back!

(chorus)

I just wanted to ask DID YOU THINK THIS THROUGH?!? did you think that this would last?
DID YOU THINK THIS THRU?
I can see that this is over
So why can't you? ooh

Don't come crawling back
That just makes you look pathetic
When you said that we were thru
And I believed you
No more playing with my mind
You can't cry wolf again this time
Your Screams are empty and I Left this all behind And I said
I'm not looking back

(chorus)

I hope that you realize you didnt need me
?its something more?
DID YOU THINK THIS THRU?
But now that its over
And I can reflect
I'm not bitter at all
