

Dover, In Hole

IN HOLE

Minds full of dirt, full of mouse
Minds getting awared that they don't lie Ears that try to pretend that they can hear cause a hole is raising away with everything
run away through your mind, open it and get inside
run away through your mind, open it and get inside

Eyes bound in the reckless ever club hearts trying to feel that they are alive Ears that try to pretend that they can hear
cause a hole is raising away with everything
run away through your mind, open air and get inside

Minds full of dirt, full of doubts eyes getting boring without no name Ears that try to pretend that they can hear
cause a hole is raising away with everything
run away through your mind, open it and get inside
run away through your mind, open it and get inside
